DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1 & 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by JP 2150682 (Mitsubishi Electric Corp). The Japanese Patent discloses a vegetable vessel (8) as a vegetable storage chamber having a high humidity and a refrigeration chamber (2) and comprising ventilating hole (10) with a shutter (11).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 17 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over JP 2150682 in view of Kim et al (US Patent 6,367,276). The Japanese Patent discloses the claimed invention as stated above but lacks a plurality of ribs. Kim et al, teaches a plurality of ribs formed across a bottom of a cover. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to modify the disclosed apparatus with a plurality of ribs as taught by Kim for improvement to a water collecting surface area.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2-16 & 18 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion
